Dear Mom & Dad,

Diane and I are waiting for dinner to be done, we made crescent rolls with bran and brown sugar which Diane loves.

Today was a busy day for Diane. She went to Kindergarten this morning, then went over to Catherine's house for a while, and then to her ballet lessons at 3:30. She just loves ballet and wore her new black leotard and pink ballet shoes today. Diane has decided she likes her P.E. class, and her teacher as well. She says it's a lot of "hard work", but it's fun, too. The kids do a lot of running, and playing games.

Her birthday parties went fine. One Sunday, with Jim & Vickie & Sue & Sam, we played the same little games we had played the day before.

Jimmy won musical chairs, Sam ring toss, and Mike won throwing the bean bags in the bowl. Diane liked watching us all play her games. Everyone brought Diane present too, of course.

Jim goes back Thursday for another presentation for his new job and will find out soon after if he has it. They are both

Very excited about it, and it would be very <sup>good</sup> for them
if he gets it.

The buzzer just rung, so it's time for dinner.

Bye for now,

Love, Mary

P.S. It will sure be fun to have you here next month.
Dime is very excited about it.
Also - your package hasn't arrived but we got your letter with the sales tags.
